“ I once met Mr. Mayes at a store and he was kind enough to shake my hand and listen to me tell him how much we loved him being our newscaster for so long. I just thought of him today while sitting in my car and wondered if he had passed away. My heart sank as I not only read he had but that the services had been in my home town. This is very belated, and for that I am sorry, but know he was a blessing to us and I am happy to have known of him.

“ I worked with Doug back in the 1960's as a cameraman on the 6pm news at Channel 3. What a pro...and a funny, bright and talented man. And he could pick a mean guitar with the best of them. Remembering all the fun times with him.

“ My husband and I had the pleasure of knowing Mr. Doug Mayes. We shared meals together, visits, and we will miss his stories and friendship. Mr. Mayes would lite up a room by his presence. To his family and caregivers may you find comfort in knowing that Doug was loved by so many and his life was full of caring about others. Thank you for the opportunity to be a part of his life. Mr. Mayes was a wonderful support to our local United Way. We will always cherish the video Mr. Mayes helped us create last year and appreciate his support to his community.

“ I last saw Doug back in the spring at Captains Cap in Denver. My grandson colored a picture and gave it to him. He was very sweet to Kipton and told him he was going to hang it in his office. Next time we went to Captains Cap Kipton wanted to color "that man in the wheel chair" another picture but Doug was not there. He was a special person.

“ I worked with Doug in the early 1960s as a reporter and news producer. He was a true gentleman and set the standard for news anchors in the fledgling television industry. He was the "face" of WBTV and with his colleagues made channel 3 an industry leader. A true family man, he and wife Ruby provided a nurturing home and set great examples for all. My wife Earlyn and I share the loss with Doug's family.

“ We always enjoyed being with Doug, especially when we would eat at Captain's Cap at the same time, and when we would stop by his dock at Lake Norman when we were boating, since we also lived close to him at the lake. We also enjoyed being with him at one of his birthday parties at Stacy's. He emceed several events we attended and always had some really good jokes. Our prayer is that God's greatest comfort will be with the family as you reminisce about all the wonderful memories you have about Doug.
