“ In loving memory of my brother Wayne: I was the oldest of six; he was the youngest. Ten years separated us so we didn't have opportunities to do much together. When he was about eight, I moved to Michigan. Later on he spent a few months working in Michigan but lived mostly in Virginia and North Carolina. While he was in Michigan, he lived with me. One day I made tuna casserole for dinner. He HATED it! But one time when he visited me on his vacation, I took him to Cobo Hall to an ALABAMA concert. He LOVED it! I will miss hm always. I loved him with all my heart.

“ Shelly, sorry to hear about you daddy's passing. Words fall short in describing the pain of losing a parent. I never got to meet your father, but he was obviously very proud of you and Zoe. You and your family will be in my prayers and I hope you are doing well.
