James, I do not know the grief of the loss of a spouse, but I do know the sudden loss of a parent. May all of you find peace and beautiful memories during the difficult days ahead.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Osborne. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for “the former things have passed away”. Please visit our website at jw.org if you want to learn about this beautiful hope and more.

“ Ms. Osborne was the nicest lady. I was amazed at her ability to remember your name when picking up an order at Laney's even if you hadn't been there in months. My prayers go out to her family.

“ Carolyn worked for us for many years and I have never met a sweeter person. She always had a smile for me when I came to the fish camp and always asked about my kids and grandkids. She was on top of everything in that carry out kitchen too. She knew most of all her customers by name and could tell you what they ordered almost weekly. What a joy she was to know. We will miss her, but heaven has gained a precious soul. May God comfort you all during this time of grief.
