“ My sweet Carolyn.....I am going to miss her very much but I know where she is and I know that she is happy and just waiting on the rest of us to join her. Sending love to the family. Carol, thank you for loving her and being the best husband to her. Cindy, thank you for being such a wonderful person to both Carolyn and Carol. They are very blessed to have you. I count it an honor to have known Carolyn for the last 8 years. Her voice and her songs will forever be remembered.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Dockery. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for “the former things have passed away”.
