“ Sister Judy was our pastor's wife years ago at Norwood Church of God. She was a sweet, loving lady that loved and served God. She and pastor John Miles was an asset to our church. God called her home because her time here on earth was done. She is in the arms of our sweet Lord where she isn't suffering anymore. My prayers go out to Reverend Miles and Benita.

“ I remember the night I married my husband , Jame Bond, and Judy and Patsy tied tin cans and wrote "Just Married " on our car. I appreciate her life as a wonderful lady and I will always remember her and her smile. Now she is at peace with the Lord and one day we will meet again. To Patsy and the other children, i am sorry for your loss and pray for you as you cope and try to go on and remember her every day.
