I grew up just two houses down from the Tanner family and remember Casey as one always ready for a game of kickball/baseball/whatever the neighborhood kids had time to do. I enjoyed his smart-alec, go-getter attitude as a kid. On behalf of Dirk, myself, and everyone from the Old Seneca Turnpike neighborhood, our sincere condolences.

*We grew up on Old Seneca Turnpike in Skaneateles and rode the bus with Casey and his family. Casey and I were the same age and our birthdays were just days apart. We used to get eggs at his family's farm too. We had a big family too - Casey was such a great guy! I'm so sorry to hear this sad news. Our family sends our deepest condolences.

Casey John was a great guy and brother! He was generous and kind to everyone. Growing up on the farm taught us to work hard and to look out for each other. I remember that one day, when I was nine and he was just one, I was carrying him on my hip as usual, in one of the fields. I got tired, so I put him down in the tall grass. He fell asleep as I wandered around. Then I lost him. I couldn't find him anywhere! I had to sound the alarm for help. Somebody in the family found him, still asleep. Boy, did I hear about that! I sure didn't do that again! We all miss you, Casey. I know Mom and Dad are happy to have you back together with them!

Much love from Joannie!
