Chanla Sisoukrath

(May 2, 1930 - October 3, 2014)

Chanla Sisoukrath, 84, of Troutman, passed away on Friday, October 3, 2014 at her residence.

She was born on May 2, 1930 in Laos. Chanla came to America in 1980 to provide a better life for her family, to live the American dream. She was loving, caring, and selflessly giving.

Chanla was a proud mother of 11 children; a grandmother to 30 grandchildren; a great-grandmother to 33 great-grandchildren; and a great-great-grandmother to 1. She also had many more loved ones and many friends who will miss and love her dearly.

Her and her husband Booda Sisoukrath's name will be long lived through her children and their children.

The family will receive friends on Friday, October 10 from 3:00-6:00 PM at Cavin-Cook Funeral Home. A memorial service will be held at 2:00 PM on Saturday, October 11 at the Cavin-Cook Funeral Home Chapel.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Sisoukrath. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for "the former things have passed away".
