“ I'm almost 85 so know how much it hurts to have a loved one go to Heaven before we do. My personal consolation has always been the knowledge that we will see them again but it still is emotionally painful not to be able to see them here on earth. Glennis, I was married 62 years when my husband died and it was like losing half of me so please know my heart goes out to you. Bill and Peggy I love you as much as my own children so I hurt very much for both of you. I send my sympathy to all of the family. You will all be in my prayers and thoughts. Nellie

“ A good neighbor who we remember fondly. He had a great sense of humor. He and Glennis looked after our house when we were gone. After telling them when we planned to return., Chuck was glad to know that, as he had to get Jose, his wife, and 8-12 kids out before we returned.Chuck tried to get out and ride his bike almost everyday. He loved his family and was a wonderful husband to Glennis.

“ Glennis,I was so sorry to read of Chuck passing away. I am lucky to have met you both and your family while he was in physical rehab at Huntersville Oaks. You both were so much fun and SO in love with one another!!. It inspires me and I thank you. I know you will be strong and I will be praying for you.Erin Budd

“ Very sorry for the loss of such a sweet man who was a good friend to my mom (cousin) and dad. I will always remember the many Saturday night card games in the kitchen when Cathy and I played games and the fun filled cottage vacations in the Adirondacks. Our sympathies are with the entire family.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope.
