“ I first met Chas back in the late 70's at a car club meet. He and his brother attended it with his all black Capri II. He became a valued member of the Capri Club of Chicago and he and our members kept in touch even after he moved away from Chicago. I last talked to Chas back in June of this year when he called to let me know of his cancer diagnosis. Gone way to soon.

“ Chas and I meet in 1st grade. We had a good friendship all through school. We were both gear heads in high school. Spent many hours working with him on his Boss 302. After high school we went on a cross country road trip to Arizona. We had a great time. Chad introduced me to my wife Rita through his girlfriend at the time. Still married to her. I moved to North Carolina not to long ago. We did touch base about getting together. Sorry it didn't happen. My condolences to the family. Richard Van Gorp Lillington North Carolina
