“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Wade. Although I did not know him personally, I, too, have experienced the loss of a loved one some years ago and know it is a difficult situation to face. I pray that his family and friends can find comfort in God's Word, the Bible, and continue to rely on Him in prayer. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they are resurrected back to life. What a beautiful and exciting hope that is!

“ Dear Bridget and family, So sorry to hear of Charlie's passing. I always enjoyed running into him because he always had such a sweet smile of his face and would shake my hand. I pray you have comfort knowing your Dad is in the arms of the Lord. I will keep you and your family in my prayers.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope.

“ Charlie, we certainly are going to miss you, but know you are in heaven with friends and family. Your body has been healed and you I'll continue to pull as hard as I can for the "Heels" in your absence. I'm sure my dad is thrilled you two are back together again!

“ Was my pleasure to have spent plenty of time around Charlie traveling with he and Jeff and on the golf course. True friend to the Burris family indeed.....my thoughts and prayers to the Wade family in his passing. I'm sure Dad was waiting to greet you earlier today in Heaven.....you two have plenty of catching up to do.
