“ The happiest time in my childhood was the year during the second grade when we lived in North Carolina around family. I remember hanging out with cousins and us running around the neighborhood and “woods.” I remember Aunt Charlotte and Uncle Dallas living next door to Mamaw and Papaw. Although I don’t have an individual personal memory with Aunt Charlotte, as I was so young, images and memories of her exist in my head as a wonderful experience living among family. I can see her face and remember her voice. She will be missed and I’ll forever hold the memory of family in my heart.
