“ Aunt Charlotte always tried to encourage each of her nieces and nephews to be better people. She tried to teach us as much as she could and instill in us a determination to make a wonderful life for ourselves. Her favorite phrase when we were younger was “apply yourself” and I know at the time she didn’t think that we listened but as we got older she saw that we did. She had told me several times how proud she was of what some of us had accomplished. “Aunt Char” will be very missed!!
