“ Shelly, was so shocked and so sorry to hear of your moms passing. She was a very sweet lady. I enjoyed her being in our Sunday School class. I remember her saying, I know, that i know, that i know, meaning without a shadow of a doubt she was saved. May God give you peace knowing where she is right now. Praying for you.

Shelley, I have so many memories of times with your mom and grandmother, multiple visits when she lived at the end of Langtree, laughter and tears, conversations at the drive-thru window at the cleaners, and years of friendship. She and I had a few marathon phone conversations since we moved away. She loved her family, her Lord and her faith radiated to others. Am praying for you, Savannah and husbands in your loss.
