“ You are the most beautiful thing that has ever happened to me. Not a minute goes past I don't think of you smiling, joking, and complimenting me on my worst days. The experiences we shared together over the past three years are irreplaceable. Thank you for showing me a positive side of life I never knew existed. I always felt warm with you around me and never felt judged or had to act out a certain persona to be with you. You are the most important person in my life and I will spend the rest of my life comparing any new face to your one of a kind character that could make a room melt with happiness. I constantly find myself talking to you throughout the day and I know you are there listening. Thank you for always keeping me positive and supporting me with no questions asked. The time we had together will be cherrished for a lifetime. You come from a great family that always supported you and they were more proud of you than you knew over the past few years. To find a soulmate that you can always trust and know is always there for you is a once in a lifetime find. We will always be together . As crushed as I am , and as much as I have cried... I will always view you as celebration of life and never take for granted the time we have spent. I am not always the best man you deserve to be with but I love you with one hundred percent of my heart. No other person can take that away. As you look down on all of us, please continue to push me in the right direction. Heaven has gained a beautiful, intelligent, and caring Angel. You have brought myself and everyone around you more happiness than you could ever imagine. I love you Chloe.

“ *Dearest Chloe...
I will never forget the first time that I met you and how you "Lit Up the Room"...all of the Conversations that we had over the last decade about life while I was making you more beautiful than you already are.
The reality is, It was you that made us and the world more beautiful throughout the years...
Watch over the Cornelius Gang...
I promise I will Love, and take care of your Beautiful Mother.
Please watch over her from Heaven for all of us... This will be the greatest challenge of her life because of the break that is so large in her heart.
I know without a doubt that you are in your Heavenly Homeplaying with Angels and orchestrating fun mischief with all of The Saints...and that you are finally free... Until I see your beautiful face again. There are no good-byes. Only know..I will see you again very soon. RIP Sweet Angel. Fly High..
All Of My Love.
