“ I knew Chris when we were teenagers, we all worked together in eastridge mall (Gastonia) he was always the big brother you wanted to have! He lit up the room when he walked in and if you were having a crap day he always knew what to say or do to cheer you up! I haven't seen Chris in over 20 years and I hate that time and life had distanced us, but I am truly honored to have had such an amazing brother from another mother I can't even believe this is real! My heart goes out to the family Chris was one in a million 💙

“ Tower was so kind hearted. A gentle giant for sure. It's so hard to believe this is real. Sending love to his family as you grieve his passing. He will be missed by so many.
