“ Chris was such a wonderful father and son-in-law! He went above and beyond for us. We live a fair distance away so he made sure we saw lots of pictures and got to spend some vacations together. I will always remember his kindness and exemplary modeling of fatherhood. Such a great loss.

“ I’ve worked w/ Chris and considered him a friend for 3+ years now. He was one of the kindest and most sincere people I’ve ever had the pleasure of knowing, let alone working with. This loss leaves not only me, but many people at a loss of someone so wonderful. I hope he rests peacefully and knows how many people cared for him.

“ Chris was such a kind, genuine, dedicated person, he really embodied goodness - it was always such a pleasure working with him and seeing him when he came out to California. We were primarily coworkers but he was a friend as well - he always put me at ease. This is a huge loss to many people. I'll always remember him very fondly. With love, Christian from EpekData.

“ I am so very sorry for Chris's passing! He was a super individual that I do not know of anyone with more character and charisma. He was a "class act". I am a better person for just getting to know him. Godspeed Chris! You will definitely be missed, but most assurdly, not forgotten my friend!

“ There are no words to express our deep sadness on the passing of our beloved Chris. Please know that your family is in our prayers during this difficult time. Though our lives may be diminished by Chris's passing from this world, that which he has accomplished will continue to leave its trace of light. As a result, it illumines our path as well.

"There are stars whose life reaches the earth only after they themselves have disintegrated and are no more.

There are people whose scintillating memory lights the world after they have passed from it.

These lights which shine in the darkest night are those which illumine for us the path."

“ It's a sad and difficult time for all of us with familial connections to Chris....I was a first cousin to his mother. Chris was a great example of a father to his boys as well as a Christian, teaching them the ways of life. It's hard not to think that he was taken too soon, but only God knows why. We do know that Chris made a difference in everyone he met!
