

Christopher Thomas Hight

June 24, 1957 - May 12, 2015

Christopher Thomas Hight, 57, of Davidson, died at the Levine and Dixon Hospice House in Huntersville on May 12, 2015.

The family will greet friends at Cavin-Cook Funeral Home in Mooresville N.C. from 6:00PM until 8PM on Sunday, May 17. The burial service will be held on Monday, May 18, at 10 AM in the Mimosa Cemetery on South Street in Davidson.

Chris is the son of the late William B. Hight, Jr. and Sandra Thomas. He is survived by his mother Sandra Thomas, his brother Eric J. Hight and his stepmother Joyce S. Hight.

He was born on June 24, 1957 in Burlington, N.C. Chris graduated from North Mecklenburg High School, held undergraduate and graduate degrees from East Carolina University and was awarded a PhD. from the University of Georgia.

Chris had many interests in his life. His dogs played a prominent role as his constant companions in life. Music filled his soul as he played the guitar and the bass guitar as much as he could. He loved to listen to all kinds of music from the Grateful Dead to the jazz of Miles Davis and McCoy Tyner. Chris learned how to sail and race boats on Lake Norman and he also earned a pilot's license. He fell in love with computers in the 1980's and never looked back as he developed a career as an IT guy.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent to the Levine and Dixon Hospice House, 11900 Vanstory Drive, Huntersville, N. C. 28078.

“ Chris was a good friend in high school and particularly after college when we played together in a band called "the Mods" in Charlotte 1982-84. I valued him for his philosophical insights and good sense. Chris was a witty fellow who caused many a laugh with his amusing ironic observations. He will be sorely missed.
