A Memorial Service will be held at 6:00 PM on Friday, November 17, 2017 at Maxwell Hill Baptist Church, Beckley, WV with Rev. Ken Killen officiating. “ Cindy and I were friends through junior high and high school. She's going to be missed. Cindy was well liked, loved and had a contagious smile and laughter that lit up a room. I'll cherish her love and kindness. I'll be praying for her three sons, her husband, her brother, and her parents. God works in mysterious ways. In our darkest hours, there is light and glows brighter as our loved ones above watch over us. Friends like Cindy are few and far between. ? I pray God blesses all her family!

“ I am so sorry to hear about Cindy's passing. I hope that the love of family and friends will comfort and strengthen you in the days ahead and somehow make it a little easier to move on with life. I pray to the Lord to bless you with the strength you need to cope with your loss during this dark time. Remembering the good times and keeping them close to your heart may help keep her remain with you always. Words can't mead your heartache, ease your loss or take away the pain, but know that you are in my thoughts and that I care about you and your entire family. I am truly sorry for what you're experiencing right now. I share your grief and wish you comfort and peace during the days, weeks and months ahead. Please remember that I am here to help however I can. I know loss can be difficult, so I'll be thinking of you and keeping you in my prayers. “ I never thought we would be saying good bye for now to a dear soul, Cindy, so early. Her heart had deep pockets that housed a love that most never come to know; love for her boys and those they love, husband and grandchild; love that desires justice; love that desires being loved back; love for God. This earth is sadder without her in it, but stronger and more fulfilled because she did indeed exist and left her mark. Just look at her children if you have a doubt. We love you Cindy and pray for your family that they may use the extension of love from God that you left behind to have strength, courage, and formulate peace. Thank you God for Cindy in our lives.

“ *While living in Stephenson WV, & being neighbors with the Leflers, Bro Ron & the Beautiful Henrietta would visit grandparents Hester & Laverne with their little princess.
