My dear friend Claire... our friendship began in my chair at the salon. A Christian "sister" friendship that reached almost 20 years! What a blessing for me ...Prayers for the peace of Christ to comfort all aching hearts. Because of Christ, we will be reunited. I'm sure Claire would want all to know that "it's all true"... Jesus and Heaven are real!

Safe in the arms of Jesus..... Claire was the example of the wife and mother in Proverbs.... her dedication to the many years spent in the church nursery school are an example of her love of the Lord and her desire to direct the young people to love Jesus..... Our faith tells us that we know where she is and with whom she is.... and I am certain she is looking down and singing the words to the song....."I shall see you soon again, in the land of life..... her family has so may wonderful memories.....
