“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Woolledge. Although I did not know him personally, the loss of a loved one is definitely a trying time for all. I pray that his family and friends can find comfort in God’s Word the Bible, and continue to rely on Him in prayer. At John 5:28, 29 we read: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...” May the promise of this beautiful resurrection give you all hope and peace of mind!

“ Ruth, I wish that you and your family will find true comfort from God, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation. May he sustain you and in due time give you his peace that excels all thought, so that it will guard your hearts and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus. Please take comfort in those words “Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves.” (Psalm 34:18)

“ I was shocked and saddened by the news of Bill's passing. I spent a lot of time with Bill at his home and he had invited my family over to enjoy his 4th of July festivities. He was an original. A nice, caring, and giving man. I felt honored to call him my friend. My thoughts and prayers are with the entire Woolledge family at this time.

“ I am so sorry for your loss, Janey, Billy, and Terry. I know how it feels to lose a parent. Your Daddy was also one terrific uncle, who I will never forget. I will always remember the fun times I enjoyed with him. He was a very caring person. I enjoyed being around him and I can still hear his voice and his laughter. Each of you and your families are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.
