In addition to her parents, Claudette was preceded in death by her devoted

“ Claudette and Don were two of the kindest folks that I’ve ever known. I worked at the marina many years ago, as a pre-teen who wanted to earn money in the summer. We started early in the mornings to catch the fishermen that started before sunrise. Claudette made sure the I was well fed since we were getting an early start, and looked after me throughout the weekends! They were wonderful folks, who loved God, valued their family, customers, and helping those in the community. I loved my time with them. May God rest her soul.

“ Either though i left her family, she always made me feel loved. My memories are abundant, but she loved getting her granddaughter Ava off the school bus everyday, then a snack and something sweet. Claudette's love will remain forever in our hearts 💕💕
