

Clay David Geisinger

November 30, 1965 - February 16, 2025

Clay David Geisinger, 59, of Mooresville, NC, passed away to be with our Lord on February 16th, 2025.

Born in Atlanta, GA, Clay, an exuberant child, quickly found the game of soccer. Every bit of his passion and energy were poured into his play. He began in youth leagues at Blackburn Park, and dominated fields throughout Atlanta.

Dunwoody High School was where he truly soared, ranking All-County, All-State and All-Regional as a player his senior year. Clay continued playing for Georgia Southern University and adult leagues in Atlanta, DataGraphics, TTK and Shalka.

Clay also found his professional calling early. He advanced quickly in the Commercial Roofing Industry, a career lasting 35 years. Beginning in Austin, TX he completed his work life as Senior Roofing Estimator in Greensboro, NC. Clay was very well known by contractors and developers for performance and excellence. Like soccer, he was one of the best at what he did.

Clay loved his children. His every desire was to provide. Beneath his sometimes, rough exterior, Clay had a big heart that those closest to him were truly blessed by.

Clay is preceded in death by his sister, Cathy Geisinger, father, Harry Geisinger, mother, Patricia Geisinger, uncle, Donald Capdau, and uncle, William Geisinger.

Clay is survived by his uncle Jim Phillips, sister Donna Geisinger, sister Tricia Parker and husband Wade, daughter Kate Geisinger, son Samuel Geisinger, daughter Haley Murphy, nephew Jacob, niece Eden, aunt Barbara Geisinger, and cousin Laura Nicoletti.

There will be a Celebration of Clay's Life Saturday, April 12th, 2025 at Blackburn Park, beginning at 5:00pm at the Pavillion directly across Ashford Dunwoody Cowart Family YMCA. Dress comfortably and bring your joy so we can celebrate him as he would wish.

“ As a kid, I lived around the corner from Clay. He was always outside, playing soccer and enjoying life. We attended high school together where he excelled at soccer, leaving a lasting impression at Dunwoody High. I will always remember his contagious smile. My prayers are with his family.

“ I met Clay many moons ago at a campground at Charlotte Motor Speedway. Got to know him very well and we become brothers of different mothers. I met his family and watched his kids Kat and Sam grow up to be the adults they are today. Clay was always proud of his kids and loved them so very much. Clay went through some very hard times and I was there with him through most as he was for me. He always called me the brother he never had. Clay lived with me for several years. We shared alot of the things that haunted both our souls and it was good to get them out of our spirits as a cleansing. Through the years we had a great time attending Nascar events, and boy was those some times with great stories. We attended a big Rock n Roll festival just a few years ago. Wow what an adventure that was. Then came the time when you say good bye to a dear friend, brother to you. I have never said goodbye much. Thats reserved for people who leave our lives and moves on to whats called our spirit world. So now I can say with a heavy heart still of this news of weeks ago. Goodbye my brother and friend. You are finally at peace. I will see you again one day. Want that be one hell of a reunion. PEACE
