“ Lots of fond memories of Craig- always giving his time. Even with all his responsibilities, he took time out to be a mentor to my son for his high school senior project. Rest in peace.

“ When I first met Craig, I was a little intimidated. He kinda scared me a little. But after that first conversation I knew I had a friend for life! He was the most sincere kind caring man! He helped me in many ways and I the same for him. He knew anytime or anything he needed I was there and the same with him. He absolutely loved sharing stories about his grand children. Him and my youngest willow, were the best of buds. If I ever saw him and didn't have her he would send me home with a pocket full of suckers for her and tell me she better be with me next time lol. He will forever be missed!

I have so many words to use to describe my friendship with Craig. I find myself saying, "Such a GREAT guy" as I've been talking about him over the past few weeks. Craig had that proverbial heart of gold. I had a flat once, I called Craig. My hot water heater decided to rust out and run all over my garage, Craig replaced it. My battery died and couldn't be recharged, Craig took the old one out and replaced it. I was very sick and had to get to the hospital, Craig came right over. I worked with Craig for 12 years and watched him help so many people. He was a true Christian who loved everyone. We shared so many laughs and NY stories. I'll miss him forever!

“ For 8 years while I was a volunteer at The Christian Mission, Craig was always a friendly, smiling face. He was helpful, kind and always wearing a smile when we spoke. His love of God, his family, people, and the community was clear. He will be missed.
