

Cullen Anthony Lintzenich

February 1, 2016 - February 1, 2016

Cullen Anthony Lintzenich, 4, of Mooresville, went home to be with Jesus on Monday, February 1, 2016. Born January 29, 2012, in Belleville, IL, he was a son of Cheryl Ann Lintzenich. In addition to his mother, Cullen is survived by his guardian parents, Chad and Melissa Schneider; brothers, Darren Matthew Lintzenich, Dalton Westcott, Blake Westcott, and Chase Schneider; sisters, Madysin Ruth Lintzenich, Crysta Schneider and Tatum Peebles; maternal grandparents, Sharon and Donald Lintzenich; maternal great grandmother, Delores June Lintzenich; Mike and Kris Peebles (Nana and Papaw) and Billy Aye (Papaw); aunt and uncle, Vickie and John Gould; cousins, Roman and Miranda Gould and great aunt, Michelle Hall Hetherington. Cullen touched so many lives in his 4 years. He was like a beautiful sunrise that we were only able to experience for a short time. He loved peanut butter sandwiches, his camo boots, feeding his baby ducks and being with his family and friends. He found happiness in the simplest of things. His smile was infectious and could light up the room. A celebration of Cullen's life will be held at 11 AM, Saturday, February 6, 2016, at The Cove Church, Mooresville. The family will receive friends immediately following the service at the church. Burial will take place at Andy Cleary Family Cemetery, Millers Creek, NC. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to The Cove Church or Cavin-Cook Funeral Home to assist with funeral expenses. Cavin-Cook Funeral Home, Mooresville, is serving the family of Cullen. Condolences may be made to Cullen's family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“ Jesus asked for a beautiful little boy to sit on his lap, Cullen heard the request from the Lord. He knew that he had courage, kindness, love and just enough mischief to answer the call. Cullen knew he was loved and he knew he would spend all his time out sitting on the lap of Jesus. He would hear the many stories told, feel the breeze of Angels wings and the love of Jesus and all the other children. May Cullen's family and friends find comfort in the arms of our Lord and Savior as they look to the heavens and know the little Angel on earth now has his wings...

“ I don't know the family, and never received the privilege of meeting the precious little guy with the awesome smile, but my heart aches for each of you. It is evident that Cullen was loved and will be greatly missed. We grieve for lost moments but you will always have the wonderful memories/pictures/videos of times shared with this special little boy. Praise God in His sovereignty and for His promise that Cullen is in His presence now and he will never experience any sorrow or pain. My thoughts and prayers are with his family for the days ahead.

“ Matthew 11 : 28-30
28Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.
29Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.
30For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.
Experiencing the loss of a loved one is never easy. I can not imagine the loss all of you are experiencing right now, but just remember this is not a Good Bye this is a See you later.

“ To Cullen's Family, Our heart breaks for you in the loss of this precious little boy. Cullen had a special purpose in God's plan of his 4 years here on earth. We do not understand what it is but He will reveal it to us in His time. Our prayer is that God will wrap His loving arms around you during this most difficult time and grant you peace, comfort, and the love that only He can give. Your family is in our thoughts and prayers. Our love in Christ. (Our daughter is Melissa Brown)
