“ My prayers and sympathy are with you all who are missing your dear love one! I hope you find comfort in knowing your tears of sadness will be done away with shortly, replaced with tears of joy when you are reunited with him. John 5:28, 29

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Guild. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for “the former things have passed away”. Please visit our website at jw.org to learn about this beautiful hope and more.

“ Curt was one of those people you have the honor to meet (even privileged to spend some time with), and never forget the rest of your own lifetime. Guests that were regulars at the various golf courses in Broward (mostly public...cheaper) and where we would spontaneously convene, would always comment; "Oh Brother, here's those Three Musketeers again!" Mark and Curt were always compromising enough to let me tag along like their little brother. (Actually, I was the runner in a separate cart for cold beverages around the 9th). Smart, kind and FUNNY is how I will remember this gentlemen. Godspeed my friend, Dave Elbaum, CA American Airlines

“ Extending my deepest condolences to the family and loved ones of Mr. Curtis Guild. Although there is little one can say or do to take away all of your pain, may it help in some small way to know that you are in the thoughts and prayers of many. During this difficult time, please find comfort from the words of Psalms 94:19. "When anxieties overwhelmed me, you comforted and soothed me".

“ It is with a very heavy heart to learn of Curt's unexpected passing. We wish we could be there to share in your sadness and sorrow. He was a kind and gentle soul who will be remembered as such. My mother, Aunt Nan was always very fond of Curt. It is too sad to share the news with her just now. Please know that our hearts, thoughts and prayers are with you all. Mary Hennion-Pound
