

Curtis John Rasmussen

August 16, 1984 - March 9, 2026

Curtis John Rasmussen, 41, of Mooresville, North Carolina, passed away peacefully on March 9, 2026, surrounded by his loved ones.

Curtis was born on August 16, 1984, in Barrington, Illinois, to Denise Hale. He is survived by his loving wife, Amie Carroll, and his siblings Jessie, John, James, Alexander, and his brother Brad Brown.

Curtis was a devoted father who loved and cherished all of his children deeply: Kyler, Karson, Khloe, Kallin, Kelsey, Chance, and Chloe. He also adored his beloved fur babies, Lola and Pippa.

For over 20 years, Curtis worked as a welder, traveling across the United States. Along the way, he built lifelong friendships and left a lasting impression on everyone he met. Despite his busy career, he always made time for what mattered most-his family and friends.

Curtis loved spending time on Lake Norman, especially out on the boat, creating memories and enjoying life to the fullest. He also had a love for the beach and cherished every opportunity to be there.

He will be remembered for his sharp wit, quick humor, and outspoken personality. Curtis had a way of making people laugh and bringing energy into every room. He truly lived life to the fullest and encouraged those around him to do the same.

He is preceded in death by his grandmother Margaret Bailes, grandfather Edward Bailes, uncle Douglas Bailes, and aunt Denine Bradley.

A celebration of life will be announced at a later date.

The family would like to thank everyone for coming together to celebrate and honor Curtis's life. He will forever be loved, missed, and remembered as a truly cherished soul.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home & Crematory, Mooresville, is serving the Rasmussen family. Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“ I will forever be grateful to Curtis for the love and happiness he brought to my sister, niece and nephew. He was always smiling and had a laidback welcoming personality and a contagious laugh. He loved his life and fought hard to live it. He never gave up Hope and he passed peacefully knowing he put up the good fight and he would be healed in Heaven. He will be missed dearly by all that loved him. I will miss his smiling face.
