“ Where do I start. I've known Cindy since I was 21 years old. She came to the hospital when my son was born. She is one of nicest people I have ever met. She may have been a homebody late in life but I remember being with her and others as we supported Duck, my dad and the band in which they played together for many years. She was a spitfire back then. Her light has just been transferred to where we all want to be.
I'll see ya when it's my time Cindy is what I say. Give my daddy a hug and kiss on the cheek for me please.
Duck, Michael and family...my heart hurts for you all. You are in my prayers and will continue to be in the days ahead as you all navigate life without Cindy. See you Sunday...
