There are so many things I could say about Dale..he was a jokester, crazy, funny, neat freak, serious guy...but with such a heart of gold. He always was straight forward and told you how he felt..he didn't cut corners. I have known Dale for 30 years and have so many wonderful memories with him. Special times and special places we use to go. I thank God for the time I did have with Dale. When he would see me out somewhere he would lean up against his truck and talk for a hour or so. But always in his conversations he would talk about Brent and how good he was doing how proud he was how great a man Brent has become. Then those beautiful grandchildren of his Katherine and Nolan. We would talk about how both our granddaughters had red hair and freckles.. Thank god for my memories. RIP my sweet friend.. I will see you again one day but I will miss and love you always. May God wrap his arms around you all and give you comfort. Peace Love and Hugs to you all.. I love you all.
