“ I'm really sorry to hear about Daniel. You all have my deepest sympathy. Death is never easy to deal with, especially when the person is so young. Please find some comfort in knowing that God promises to bring an end to all pain and suffering. Even death will be no more. We will even have a chance to see our dead loved again. - Revelation 21:4, John 5:28,29

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope.

“ I met Daniel in school but I didn't get actually know who he was till I started working at the kangaroo on main st. He would come in while I was working a third shift ask if I was hungry then come back two hours later with so much food and we would talk and laugh for hours. I wish I had gotten that beer with him. God I will miss his smile he had and that great big bear hug he gave me every time I saw him. Rest easy baby watch over your family I'm sure one day we will get that beer. I love you!
