“ I remember visiting my grandparents at their home in Mooresville and oohing and awing over the amazing paintings that were hanging throughout the house that my Grand-Dad-Dan did on pieces of wood. They were beautiful landscapes or scenery that always got my attention. I remember him teaching me chords on the guitar and getting my first "right sized" guitar of my own to practice what he taught my sister and I. He has always been thoughtful and welcoming and loving to us and will be missed. Love you.

“ *Elisha...I remember your daddy years ago when he was in the band with Dickie Dickerson. Your mama and I used to go see them in Davidson so many times. They all were a great group of guys. I remember when your mama and daddy got married...I was there..and when you were born little girl. Your daddy was beaming! I am so glad you got to spend precious time with him. I love you honey.*Janice Hillebrand Farmer
