“ It is difficult to put in words how sorry we are to learn of Darlene's passing. She will always be remembered for being the kind-hearted, soft-spoken, and loving person she was. A gentler soul may have been made, but I never knew it. Prayers for each of you my friends. We are so sorry we will not be able to be there for the service as we will be in Detroit, but know that you all are in our prayers. God Bless!!

Thank you Cotton.

“ I sit here at my computer looking at her picture, trying to find the words worthy of Darlene's memory. She was kind, humble, creative, and hard working. As I told Cristin a while back, she was one of my very few "heroes". But those words aren't enough. She was, and is, the epitome of grace. If there could be royal designations for common people, she would rank higher than Queen..... Cristin, Laura, Brenda and my brother Joe, know ye that a lot of people sympathize with you in this time of great sadness, and that the hero Darlene was will always be.....
