“ We all are at a loss for words and certainly, the least of which is me. Although I've only known Craig since 2012 I feel like I've known him much longer.

Having been a lineman and a foreman for almost 35 years, I know the lineman's Life; what he gives up; the missed birthdays, ball games and holidays to "keep the lights on." There is no other job like it, but it is almost always never appreciated by the public like Firefighters or Law Enforcement jobs. We aren't really taken for granted, especially by our families but we work a job most don't think about. When tragedy happens we're left as a "family" the Lineman's Family. Craig to me, was certainly family.

May God rest his immortal soul and give his wife Jessica and their children the peace and comfort they need in their hour of grief.

“ I have lots of family memories of Craig that will always be in my heart. We come from a large family that shared a lot of memories growing up. Craig was a fun loving cousin that enjoyed life. He loved his wife, children, dad, mom, sister, brother, nephews, niece, and all of us.

I'm very blessed that I was part of Craig's life growing up.

We love you Craig. God has lifted you above us all and we all know that we will see you again.
