“ I don't remember much from my childhood but I do remember that Uncle David would always spoil me. He would always make sure I was happy. I remember being with my cousin Tyler and eating homemade jerky that David made. I will always miss him so...

“ We were best friends as children. Where one was, you'd find the other. While our lives drifted in different directions as we aged, he was always my dear brother. You will be missed dear brother. I wish you peace in your final rest. I'm sure there are shelves and shelves of books waiting for you to kick back and read.
