“ Hello Nance family. I know you don't know me - but I met Shane out at the Davidson College Lake campus over the last 8 months or so and we became dog walking friends (my dog is the mostly black german shepherd - I have also ran into Shane's dog with Shane's wife a few times.).

I am so very very sorry about this news and Shane's death. He was such a nice man and I considered him a friend even though we had only casually known each other. He showed me the hidden trails at the lake campus and our dogs ran and ran and ran and ran while we chatted about everything and nothing. This tragedy is so sad and I hope that you can find peace somehow with his passing. I am so very sorry and I will miss him. Todd Harwood
