“ Granny Davis' was a true daughter of Davidson and Southern Lady of the old school. To her kin and people there was no greater cheerleader, advocate, mentor and friend. Even as an outsider, I shall always recall fondly our time together at the Centre Church and family home in Mount Mourne. To the Davis-Lee family and greater church community I extend heartfelt condolences at your loss. May the vim, vigor and vitality - which Granny Davis had (in such abundance) be an example and inspiration to us all.

“ To know Colleen was to love her. I knew her very a long time growing up in Centre Church. She was a very sweet lady and was a very good friend of my mom's as well as other family members that have been members of the church for a very long time. I worked with her at Belks part time when I was a teenager and she really taught me a lot in how to deal with retail in making a sell in lingerie. To Jane and Susan as well as the grandchildren, I know you will greatly miss your mom and grandma. She will definitely be missed by all people who knew her. She was a true christian and was very active at the church. She deeply loved every one that knew her. She always gave you a hug and a kiss as always said that she truly loved you. So Ms. Colleen just know that Ms. Denise Brantley Brown loves you and will deeply miss you until we meet each other again.

“ My deepest condolences to the family of Colleen. I knew Ms. Colleen from my childhood days growing up in Centre Church and also through my mother's (Helen Morrow) involvement in the Ada Williams Circle. Mom and Colleen were of the same generation in supporting this Circle. My thoughts are with the family in your loss. Blessings to the legacy of Colleen and to all of you. - Deana Morrow

“Granny” was a wonderful, loving person to everyone. She was well loved by all. I know she’s in Heaven with Jesus. Granny treated me like family and always thanked me for taking great care of “her boys”, Frank Davis and Charlie. She knew how much I love them. May she rest in peace. She will be missed.

“ To know Colleen was to love her. She was the best listener and problem solver I have ever known. She was quick to give a hug and a kiss on the cheek and never failed to tell you she loved you. The Queen among all of us. I don’t even know where to start to say good-bye; so I will not say good-bye, but send a request to Heaven to ask her to keep watching over all of us. So, until we meet again...RIP my Queen, I Love You.
