“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Nosker. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for “the former things have passed away”. Please visit our website at jw.org to learn about this beautiful hope and more.

“ Debby was an awesome mom to her kids as well as the kids she raised in Scouting. Always there to help and also there to provide a little correction when needed. I remember every Monday night getting a sour Warhead and her laughing to no end when my face got twisted up because of the sourness. I'm going to find a few and enjoy them because it made her laugh. She was a great lady and I along with my family were very lucky to have known her.

“ I only met Debbie once, and it wasn't for a very long time, but from stories I've heard, and from meeting her, I knew she was a great person. I wish I had gotten to meet her sooner and gotten to spend more time with her. She's going to be greatly missed.

“ Debbie I will miss you with all my heart. You never failed to make this out-of-town cousin feel like family and I will forever love you for it. There were times when I called on you as a cousin. There were times when I called on you as a friend. A friend who took the time to listen, and one I could always count on to tell me what I needed to hear, not what I wanted to hear. Most of all I reached out to you as the sister I never had. We fussed some, we laughed a lot and through the ups and downs of life we loved each other without conditions. Good-Bye my cousin, good-bye by friend. I am sorry but the keys on this keyboard are way to blurred to say .....

“ Oh My Sweet sister, I miss you so much, but I am Praising God you are at Peace. You are free from pain, for I will cherish all the memories we had together from Girl Scouts , to painting, to our morning coffee and midday breaks for coffee and just our talks about life in general. How you loved your husband, children, grandchildren, extended family and friends. You are always around us, engulfing us with your love. Giving us strength, keeping us close and watching over us from above. I can only imagine all the smiles and hugs that awaits you. I'll never say 'goodbye, only 'I Love You girl, We will all be together again . ~pooh~

“ A thoughtful and precious person. Debbie grew up with me in Cornelius, along with her brother Eddie. I know she is in her forever home now " heaven." Her mama was there to meet the angel that escorted her. You know they are laughing and chatting away. No more pain for her, no more, Cancer! My heart goes out to her family, I know she will be missed. God is listening, talk to Him. Keep looking up. One day your circle will be complete again. She will be waiting....
