

Debra "Debbie" Deaton Brannon

October 5, 1952 - June 11, 2025

Debra (Debbie) Lynn Deaton Brannon, 72, of Mooresville, passed away peacefully surrounded by her family, Wednesday June 11th, 2025.

She was born on October 5, 1952, in Mooresville, NC, to the late Lucille Thompson Deaton and Robert Sloan Deaton. After graduating from Queens College with her associates degree, Debbie began her career at Davidson College working in the then-called Secretarial pool. Over the years many of the women in this secretarial pool became lifelong friends. Often referred to as "the cronies" these ladies routinely eat lunch together and continued to meet monthly for breakfast after retirement. As a lifelong member of Central United Methodist Church, Debbie played an important role in her church family as well as the Mooresville community.

In addition to her parents, she was proceeded in death by her sister Lynda Deaton Keller. Debbie is survived by her daughter, Hailey Brannon; son, Jade Brannon; sister, Sheila Atwell (Mike); nephew, Phillip Atwell (Carolyn); niece, Meredith Suther Hicks (Landon); and her grand dog, River, among many other grand animals.

Receiving friends from 2:00-3:00 PM with a service following 3:00 PM on Tuesday, June 17th, 2025, in the Heritage House located at Cavin-Cook Funeral Home & Crematory, 494 East Plaza Drive Hwy 150, Mooresville, NC 28115. Officiating the service is Rev. Anita Sain, and Ordained Min. Hailey Brannon.

“ I offer my deepest heartfelt sympathy to her family & loved ones. I was privileged to know Debbie for many years, though I hadn't seen her that often through the years. I got to know her & her family through my sister Melody who was married to Ronnie Towell for many years. I've never known a more loving, supportive family. If you were fortunate enough to know Debbie & her family their love for each other was evident. Debbie had this smile that was infectious. She will be missed. But I know in my heart, that she's in heaven. That she's rejoicing. No more pain, no more sadness. Again, my deepest sympathy. Pat Williams ❤️ 🙏
