“ Billy and Family, I offer my sincere condolences on the loss of your Mom and our family friend for so many years. She was such a wonderful teacher and leader for the youth group at church, and helped guide so many of us as we became adults. She was an inspiration to many, and will be missed so much. You and your family are in my prayers.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Kiser. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for “the former things have passed away”. “ My prayers and sympathy are with you all who are missing your dear love one! I hope you find comfort in knowing your tears of sadness will be done away with shortly, replaced with tears of joy when you are reunited with them. John 5:28, 29
