“ I would like to say how very sorry I am for your tremendous loss. I know it will never be the same again for you. I will be praying for you over these coming difficult days and months as you grieve for your loved one. I know there is nothing that can be really said to make you feel any better at this moment but enjoy all the memories that you made with her as it may help a little in this time. Again I am truly sorry for all of you, with much love, Miss Christine.

“ Denise was the first female I met when I moved to FI 20 years ago. We have been friends ever since. I will forever remember the fun times and those times she was my rock. I followed her to NC. She was and forever will remain my best friend. I love you Tiger.
