“ It was an honor to have known such a loving and wonderful person. We would never see her without a smile on her face and always something postive to say about one of her grandchildren. We will truly miss her. Everytime we pull in the Wal-mart parking lot, we would say to each other, I wonder if James and Diane will be in here, as we ran into them quite oftem there and would stand and talk for the longest time. I just want everyone to know that another ANGEL

“ Diane was such a sweet lady. She took care of my dogs for years when I was working. She loved Jenny & Scrappy as much as I did. She was the nicest neighbor I've ever had. So sorry she's gone, but I know she's in heaven, and not suffering anymore. James, you will get to see her again, so be proud of that fact! You know we loved Diane, and we are going to miss her so much! ”

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope. ”

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Ganus. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for “the former things have passed away”.
