August 28, 1955 - June 19, 2015

Diane Marguerite Mathis, 59, of Mooresville, passed away on Friday, June 19 at Levine & Dickson Hospice House in Huntersville surrounded by her loved ones. Born in Bogalusa, Louisiana on August 28, 1955 to Elizabeth "Bettye" Jane Prather Mathis and the late Charles Henry "Hank" Mathis, Diane was raised in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. After graduating from South Plantation High School, Diane moved to the Charlotte metropolitan area before settling in Mooresville in the 90s, where she mostly worked in medical administration. Diane had a passion for cooking and, later in life, she made annual trips back to Florida to visit friends and loved ones. She was a beloved daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, aunt, and best friend, and she was happiest when she spent time with her family and friends.

Diane is survived by her mother, Bettye Mathis of Mooresville; by her brothers, Stephen Mathis of Washington and David and Phillip "Buddy" Mathis of Mooresville; by her daughters, Jennifer and Melanie McIntosh of Mooresville and Amanda Morgan of Washington, DC; and by her grandchildren, Michael Graham, Nickolas Riddle, and Kaitlyn Baxley of Mooresville. Diane will be cremated at Cavin-Cook Funeral Home in Mooresville, per her wishes. The family has asked that in lieu of flowers, that donations be made to Levine & Dickson Hospice House, 11900 Vanstory Drive, Huntersville, NC 28078.
