“ I will always cherish our friendship Diane and hold you close in my heart forever. Your kindness and sweet smile could make me feel as if I were the only person you had time for in my moment of need. Our girl lunches together were our time to chat about family. You loved to talk about your precious children, their wonderful accomplishments and I loved how your face lit up every time. When you met Tom, he was your Prince Charming , Ive never seen you happier. Tom, you treated her like the lady she deserved . She loved you immensely! When the other guy Nolan, came along your precious heart got what it was yearning for. You adored that sweet boy as he did you.You fought the battle Diane, now its time to rejoice with our personal Savior.Be well sweet angel your work is done. You did a beautiful job, love!Tish

“ Heaven is rejoicing. No more sickness & pain. Diane was my sister, my friend, the person that i would call or text when i needed someone to talk to. She would come & have lunch with me at work. She supported me through all my marathons. She was my best friend. To Diane's family. My heart really goes out to you all. The love & support that you had for her was beautiful and amazing. My prayers are for your strength & comfort as i know the days don't seem to get easier. Nolan's Nannie is watching over him from heaven above now. Love you Diane!

“ Nothing more to be said or done. As the Lord said on the cross: "it is finished". But the legacy of this lady will live on in the hearts of those that loved her forever. Our last meeting is where she will be layed to rest. We walked the path and talked of Tom and Doris and days gone by and the future. What a strong woman to be so young.

Mike Moore - March 10, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ Our deepest condolences and prayers to all of your family during this time and for the months to come! May your hearts be at peace knowing she is with our Savior and will continue to watch over each of you as your guardian angel!
