“ When we lived next door to John and Peggy, we would go north for Thanksgiving and would never have to worry about the safety of the house 'cause Dee Dee and Bob would usually stay at our place....i'd come home to a cleaner house than I provided! One particular year Dee shined all my pots - they haven't looked as good since! I enjoyed sharing all the large print books, your ready smile and laugh, and know that you and Bob are partying together again! You remain alive and well in all our hearts.

“ Rest In Peace Aunt Dee. I remember as a young girl, I fell in love with Penny, one of her beloved black cats. I now have my own. Rick reminded me of his nickname when we visited in 2009. He called Aunt Dee ... “hot rod”. ;)
