Dominik David Scharding, age 55, of Mooresville, North Carolina, passed away on Friday, October 3, 2025, at approximately 7:00 a.m.

He was born on June 11, 1970, in Santa Monica, California, to Vera Marie Scharding. He was preceded in death by his father, William John Scharding. Dominik was raised his entire life in Newbury Park, California, where he developed the skills, friendships, and passions that would carry with him throughout his life.

He is survived by his mother, Vera Marie Scharding and Marcus Schuyler Stone (stepfather); his brother, Bryan Paul Scharding (wife, Heather Jeanne Scharding); and his aunts, Antoinette Marie Egidi and Gemma Carlson.

Dominik built a lifelong career as a highly certified mechanic, known for his skill, precision, and dedication to helping others keep moving forward. Beyond his work, he had numerous passions that defined his life. He found joy in working with his hands, problem-solving, and sharing his talents with family and friends.

One of his greatest hobbies was playing pool - a love and passion passed down from his father, William, who played the game professionally. He also had a passion for working on vehicles, but especially trucks - and always made it clear he was a "Chevy, not Ford" man, a nod that never failed to spark good-natured rivalry with his brother.

Memorial service information will be announced at a later date. ---

Psalm 23:1-6 (KJV) The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
