“ Donald was a real good friend. Lots of memories hunting and helping fix farm equipment. We could always count on each other. He was good to me and my family. Many nights playing rook with Mickey and Brenda. We would play rook while the kids watched dukes of Hazzard and Dallas. Even though everybody grew up and went their ways Donald always was a part of our lives. Rest in peace my friend. Mickey recalls the time a naked man was walking down the road toward our house. Donald drove in the drive way slamming on breaks yelling at her to get inside, get inside so she wouldnt see. We always loved to hear him run his rabbit dogs. Lots of similar memories. We love you all.
