

Donald William Hart

October 15, 1922 - June 27, 2015

Donald William Hart, a life-long Mooresville resident, passed away on Saturday, June 27, 2015, at the age of 92.

Born on October 15, 1922, to the late Henry Howard Hart and Fannie Turner Hart, he was a graduate of Mooresville Central High School and a well-known dairy and beef farmer.

Mr. Hart was an active member of Prospect Presbyterian Church where he served as elder, deacon, Sunday school teacher, and chaired numerous committees. He was active with Salem Presbytery serving on various committees over the years and a longtime member of the local Mooresville Lions Club.

He lived a life of strong character, faith, integrity, generosity and respect for others and was a wonderful example of a life well lived to his family.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his first wife, Christine S. Hart; brothers, Harry Hart and Samuel Hart; sisters, Louise Jackson, Ruby Gudger and Margaret Gudger.

Mr. Hart is survived by his wife, Betty S. Hart; son, William A. Hart (Bill) and daughter-in-law, Becky, of Mooresville; his beloved grandson, Christopher and wife, Atina; step-daughters, Tina Brown (Mark), Gaye McConnell, Dawn Arnette (Hal) and step-grandchildren, Nathan Brown, Carol Brown and Miles Arnette. He is also survived by sisters, Helen Barber and Virginia Edmiston and numerous nephews and nieces.

A service honoring Donald's life will be held on Tuesday, June 30, 2015, with a family graveside service at 10:00 AM in the Prospect Presbyterian Church cemetery and a memorial service at 11:00 AM with Rev. Dr. Tom LaBonte officiating. The family will receive friends following the service in the church parlor.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Development Fund at Prospect Presbyterian Church, 9425 WNC 152 Highway, Mooresville, NC 28115. Cavin-Cook Funeral Home is serving the family. Condolences may be made to the Hart family at www.cavin-cook.com.
