“ My heart is hurting over the loss of sweet Donna. She was a wonderful Sunday School teacher and her love of the Lord was so clear to everyone. Donna loved her family and anyone she came in contact with. I look forward to the day where we will all be reunited in Heaven. Heaven is sweeter with Donna's presence.

“ Donna was such a loving and giving friend. It was always obvious how deeply she loved and treasured God first, and her family next. Sam, her children and grandchildren were certainly her pride and joy. I have always enjoyed Donna’s dry wit, passion and wisdom. She was a wonderfully creative Bible teacher in the years before Alzheimer’s took over. My friend also had such a sweet and caring spirit. I look forward to someday spending eternity with this precious lady.
