

Donna Rae Ervin

July 6, 1956 - August 2, 2020

Donna Ridenhour Ervin, 64, of Kannapolis, passed away on Sunday, August 2, 2020 at Atrium Health Northeast in Concord.

She was born on July 6, 1956 in Flint, MI, to the late Alice Gurley Ridenhour and John A. Ridenhour, Jr. Donna loved the Lord and everyone; she never met a stranger. She found a man that loved her as much as her late husband did, Jeffrey Dean. She enjoyed being outdoors, gardening, swinging on her porch swing, and country music. She had a smile that would light up the room.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Danny Ervin; and a brother, Kenneth "Bebo" Ridenhour.

She is survived by her daughter, Victoria Shuffler and husband, Eric; significant other, Jeffrey Dean; sister, Sam Lail; brothers, John Ridenhour and wife, Cheryl, Jeff Ridenhour; granddaughter, Molly Shuffler; and numerous special nieces and nephews.

The family will receive friends on Saturday, August 8 from 1:00-3:00 PM with a Celebration of Life following at 3:00 PM at Cavin-Cook Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Jimmy Strickland officiating. For those who are unable to attend the service, you may go to the following link for the live stream

“ Victoria, You know I loved your mama and daddy both. They were quite the characters. I can still picture them walking you to my classroom every day in their cowboy boots and big belt buckles and your dad in his cowboy hat always. My mother passed away in May so I can feel your pain. There is no one like a mama. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. Cherish your wonderful memories. Sending love and hugs, Vicki Brawly

Victoria, some of the most fun I ever had was the camping trips with your mama and daddy. And the auctions were so much fun. Be strong girl. I love you and will see you Saturday.
