“ I had the pleasure of working with Donna for 12 years. During this time she was one person I could always go to for advice about work and life. She always told me straight. If I was wrong she let me know, but most importantly she was there to help me get it right. I hope she knows that she is a big reason why I am where I am today. Me, my wife and children will always be very grateful.

“ Donna was my friend from grade school through high school and beyond. She was my Maid of Honor when Tom and I got married. She was the first one you shared secrets, experiences and hopes with. Will always carry her in my heart and never forget her. A better friend you couldn't have. Loved you Donna, rest in peace.
