“ My deepest condolences to Mrs. Atkinson's family and friends; while no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for "the former things have passed away".

“ Lisa, My sincerest condolences on the loss of your mom. She was a Great Lady who always thought about others first. She was a saint to me when I was growing up. I always looked forward to seeing her when I went back home for visits and met up with her at church. She was instrumental in getting Wayne and me back in touch. Little did we know how short that time would be, but I cherish it. She will be missed.

“ With deepest sympathy and prayers on the loss of your mother. She was a neighbor and a friend of mine on Burnham Road for a couple of years. Dora was a wonderful person and will be missed by all who knew her. May she rest in peace!
